

IHPN members in Wales in 2022

IHPN Wales represents independent acute, mental health and learning disability hospitals in Wales. The Network brings members together, enabling them to connect with colleagues from across the Welsh healthcare system so they can make a positive contribution to the development and review of public policy regarding healthcare in Wales.

Workforce and Training

Independent sector providers play a key role in training and growing the healthcare workforce in Wales

2,770

staff employed
or contracted

100%

offer nurse training

Patient activity

Independent sector providers make a varied and important contribution to supporting patients in Wales

280k patients
treated

56,000

scans and x-rays carried out

165

acute beds available

119

beds for long-term
mental health inpatients

Safety and Quality

Independent sector providers deliver high quality care that patients value

over 96%

of acute patients would recommend their hospital to their friends and family

100%

of Welsh
operators have a Freedom
to Speak Up Guardian

